RS2 SOFTWARE SPONSORS GREEK BANKING FORUM

RS2 Software recently participated in the Greek Banking Forum held in Athens.

The two-day networking event, organised by the Hellenic Institute of Information Technology, aimed to highlight the role of technology in the smooth running of a bank's' operations.

During the forum, various themes were covered, including IT challenges faced by the banking sector, electronic payment systems, IT tools for business innovation, collaboration and content management, amongst others.

The RS2 Software delegation consisted of Mr Radi El Haj, Managing Director of ITM, parent company of RS2 Software, Mr David Amato, RS2 Software Chief Projects Officer and Mr Godwin Schembri, RS2 Software Chief Technical Officer.

RS2 Software's participation in the annual Greek banking event forms part of the company's strategy to further tap international markets. RS2 currently stands as one of the top ten international players in the field of card payments solutions. Its cutting edge card solution, BANKWORKS, over the years has witnessed an upward trend in market acceptance and services over 80 banks worldwide.

The system's various modules support all card management processes and include card issuing, merchant acquiring, transaction processing, clearing, settlement, reporting and Internet services, just to mention a few. Its modules and components have been certified by the major card schemes.
